ORION FORUM

Energy Security in a Changing Global Landscape

NOVEMBER 24, 2026

Orion Policy Institute will be hosting a live webinar on Wednesday, December 2, 2026, between 10 and 11 am (EST), titled "Energy Security in a Changing Global Landscape ."

Register here.

The panelists include:

- Dr. Carolyn Kissane: Associate Dean and Clinical Professor at the Center for Global Affairs at NYU
- Ira Joseph: Senior Research Associate at the Center on Global Energy Policy at Columbia University
- Dr. Federico Donelli: Senior Fellow at Orion Policy Institute and Associate Professor of International Relations in the Department of Political and Social Sciences at the University of Trieste
- Rafaella Lipschitz (moderator): Non-Resident Fellow at Orion Policy Institute and Associate Analyst for the Crime-Conflict Nexus Portfolio at the New Lines Institute for Strategy and Policy

The webinar will explore the evolving relationship between energy and security, including maritime chokepoints such as the Strait of Hormuz, Gulf security dynamics, maritime security, regional power competition, and strategic connectivity in the Red Sea arena, disruptions to global energy flows, and emerging threats to critical infrastructure.

It will be live and recorded, and there will be a Q&A session at the end of the webinar.

Do not forget to follow us on LinkedIn and X!